NOMINATIONS FOR THE 2007 AUSTRALIAN VOCATIONAL STUDENT PRIZE

Nominations open on 12 May 2007 & close on 14 June 2007

The Australian Vocational Student Prize (AVSP) was introduced in 2005 to encourage and recognise the achievements of exceptional Year 12 students undertaking an Australian School-based Apprenticeship or Vocational Education and Training in Schools programme as part of their senior secondary certificate.

The AVSP is a high profile initiative through which the Australian Government highlights the value and importance of vocational education and training as a desirable pathway for students. It celebrates the achievements of students excelling in this field with up to 500 outstanding students each receiving a certificate and a $2,000 prize. The very best of these students may also receive the prestigious Prime Minister's Award for Skills Excellence.
